

THE VIEWFINDER BY JOCK FISTICK

To see more photos, go to SouthFloridaBusinessJournal.com

One of the hotel's 151 Standard King rooms

The view from one of the meeting spaces at the Atton Brickell Miami. The hotel features 6,000 square feet of event and meeting space.

Claudia Di Gino, general manager of the Atton Brickell Miami, with Atton Hotels CEO Francisco Levine.

Atton Hotels readies Miami financial district hotel for opening

Chilean hospitality company Atton Hotels is putting the finishing touches on its first U.S. property, which opens this summer at 1500 S.W. First Ave., near Miami's Brickell financial district.

Francisco Levine, CEO of the international hotel developer and operator, gave the Business Journal a tour of the $65 million Atton Brickell Miami, which includes food and beverage concepts such as Uva Bar and full-service restaurant Lima, a full gym, 6,000 square feet of event and meeting space, and a rooftop pool.

Atton hired 130 local professionals to staff the hotel and its eateries.

The 12-story, 275-room hotel has sweeping views of Simpson Park. Room rates will start at $150 a night.

"We're very excited to be part of Miami's boom in development," Levine said. "We're really seeing it consolidating as a key destination for Latin America, and we're very excited to put our brand here."

— Emon Reiser

The pool and sun deck at the Atton Brickell Miami overlooks the city.